Dear Andrew,

Review of Water Resource Plan Assessment Process – NSW Intersecting Streams Surface Water

We have completed our Process Review of the Murray-Darling Basin Authority's (MDBA's) assessment (including making appropriate enquiries around MDBA's approach and documentation of the assessment) of the NSW Intersecting Streams Surface Water Water Resource Plan (WRP). This letter is provided in accordance with the scope of works as described in the Statement of Work in our Contract (Reference ID: MD004625).

Scope

KPMG has reviewed Parts 2 and 4 of MDBA's assessment of NSW Intersecting Streams Surface Water WRP and the supporting documentation, and provide our findings with respect to the process followed.

Findings

Based on our observations and enquires with respect to the sections reviewed:

- The approach applied by MDBA in undertaking and documenting the assessment, including documentation of justifications and references to support the assessment, appears to be consistent with internal guidance materials and recordkeeping requirement;
- MDBA has included justification for their assessment, supported by their analysis and documentation to a standard understandable to an informed third party; and
- Any issues logged by the MDBA have been resolved with the relevant state or territory.

The scope of our engagement is an advisory engagement and did not include assessing the appropriateness of the MDBA's assessment outcomes or the underlying justifications.

Should you have any questions or comments, please contact me on (02) 6248 1220.

Yours sincerely

Tony Hof
Partner
