Program Governance (correct as at 2019-20 annual report)

MD-WERP Governing Panel

Members: Independent Chair, Commonwealth Environmental Water Holder, First Assistant Secretary, Water

Division AWE, Executive Director of Basin Strategy and Knowledge, MDBA (also MDBA Delegate).

Purpose: To provide oversight of the Program.

MDBA Project Delegate

Tactical & Synthesis

Commonwealth Advisory Team

Members: MDBA Project Delegate,

DAWE and CEWO representatives.

Purpose: To support collaboration and engagement between Commonwealth Partners and to assist in providing advice from a Commonwealth perspective.

→ Reporting line → Advisory pathway

Key

Executive Leadership Team

Strategic Research

Members: MDBA Project Delegate, Research Consortium

Directors.

Purpose: To provide strategic and operational oversight of the Strategic Research Investment.

Science Leadership Team

Members: Research Consortium Directors, Commonwealth

and Consortium Theme leads and Engagement leads.

Purpose: To provide science leadership to ensure the delivery of rigorous and robust science to address end-user needs and integration of the Program's strategic research investment.

Communication and Engagement Steering Group

Members: MDBA General Manager

Communication, Engagement and Strategic Policy, MDBA Project Delegate, MDWERP Research Consortium engagement and communication leads and Advisors.

Purpose: To assist with supporting a coordinated approach to both communication and engagement activities to support the Murray-Darling Water and Environment

Research Program.